Our Teachers

Our teachers are prepared to teach all levels and types of course, always based on the CEFRL (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). They are also experienced in both teaching and preparing candidates for official exams in their respective languages (English, Spanish, French, German and Chinese).

Added to their university degrees and formal studies, our teachers also participate in training sessions and workshops in order to keep their knowledge updated and be able to comply with any possible changes in the international guidelines and regulations in language teaching.

The content of the training sessions is constantly evaluated and approved by the Head of Studies in order to ensure the quality and accuracy of the information provided to teachers.

Requirements to become a teacher at Cambridge Institute

- Certificates and Diplomas in foreign language teaching techniques
- For native speakers: BA related to the area and more than 2 years of experience teaching the language to foreigners.

Materials

In order to attend the classes in any of our courses it is necessary to purchase the materials/resources which will be used throughout the course, adjusted to the level.

- Books
- Modules in the online platform

The online platform allows the student to study the course units from any device: computer, laptop, cellphone or tablet, which makes it easier for the student to access the course contents anywhere.

Our materials have been developed by professionals from our contents department, which means our materials are original and exclusive. They were developed taking into account the latest topics of interest so besides learning the language, students can also benefit from updated and interesting information from English speaking countries. Online courses are available from A1 to C2.
Cambridge Soho Club

The company also offers complementary services aiming to optimize the programs. One such example is Cambridge Soho Club, located right beside the school, where many extracurricular activities take place:

- English workshops: conversation and business
- International students’ gatherings: Meet and Speak
- Cambridge exams information workshops

Cambridge Soho Club joins the comfort of a club with the best of the Mediterranean cuisine. Cambridge Institute started by uniting 2 cultures and 2 languages and ended up creating a unique and cosmopolitan space for many nationalities in the heart of Madrid, more specifically, at Plaza de España, close the well-known Gran Via.

Its warm décor takes us to other corners of the Earth: a cosmopolitan room furnished with Chesterfield sofas and armchairs, making it the ideal place for a quiet coffee or group events.

“In an event where you get to meet new people while learning a new language”

Cambridge Institute is part of “Madrid Excelente”, a stamp of quality guarantee from the Community of Madrid, which certifies the quality of different companies providing services in Madrid.

In 2016 Cambridge Institute was awarded the “Estrella de Oro” by the Institute of Professional Excellence, whose motto is: “With excellence comes recognition”. This award is given once a year to distinctive institutions, companies and professionals, people capable to innovate and foster social and economic development, based on a “total quality” philosophy in all their actions.

Cambridge Institute is certified by ISO 9001:2008 in quality management for language course services, which guarantees high standards of leadership, governance and continuous betterment.

Student commitments

The student agrees to pay the total amount owed for the course purchased according to the contract signed. Cambridge Institute will only reimburse the amount paid in case the course/group in which the student is enrolled in closed down or not formed.

In case the student decides not to take the course for any other reason, Cambridge Institute will issue a voucher (valid for one year) for the amount paid and not consumed, which the student will be able to use in any of the courses offered by Cambridge Institute.

The student can make use of the voucher for himself or transfer it to their spouse, sibling, children or one of their parents.

Private centre

Cambridge Institute is a private language center for non-formal education. Our courses do not lead to diplomas or certificates officially recognized by the Ministry of Spain. Our courses lead to certifications internationally recognized in the languages sector.”
